INTRODUCTION.

MR. HENRY STEVENS, of Vermont, who died on February 28th last, having been warned some time previously by his medical advisers of the precarious state of his health, had early in the year given instructions for the sale of this the Second Portion of his Historical Collections relating to America, and the Catalogue was in preparation at the time of his decease.

The Collection now offered embraces the greater part of his personal or working Library, and exhibits in a marked degree his well-known penchant for fine or uncut copies of rare books, and his love for elegant and expensive bindings when the books could not be obtained in their original condition. Many volumes contain his Book-plate.

A few of the most important Lots are briefly mentioned on the Title of the Catalogue, but amongst so many volumes on one general subject, it is difficult to discriminate, as the less well-known books are often really the most important historically. For this reason we have catalogued the books rather more fully than usual, and in a few cases added notes, mostly from Mr. Stevens's own memoranda.

The following Index of Subjects may perhaps prove of service to the Reader, but we invite a careful perusal of the whole Catalogue.

Part I of Mr. Stevens's Historical Collections was sold by us in July 1881. A few copies of the Catalogue, which included an account of the Franklin Collection, can still be had, price 5s. in cloth.

The Swedish Colony and Mission on the Delaware, planted in 1638, under Oxenstiern, wrested by Stuyvesant of Manhatten and annexed to New Nederland in 1655, and swallowed up by the English in 1664 together with the other Dutch possessions in America, was never really abandoned or forgotten by the parent State till 1791, when it had become permanently provided for and protected as part of the great republic of the United States. The best history of it is this by ACRELIUS, born in 1714, died 1800, who wrote first hand, having been provost over its three churches, and rector of the old Swedish church at Wilmington for seven years, 1749-1756. Besides his own collections and experience, he seems to have used judiciously all previous authors who had touched or written on the same subject, such as De Vries (see Lot 563), Vander Donck (see Lots 128 and 129), Rudman's MSS. Swedburg's Dissertatio and America Illuminata (see Lot 531), Campanius (see Lot 203), Hesselius, Björk (see Lot 31), etc.

5 ALBERTINUS (Franciscus de). Opusculum de Mirabilibus Novae & veteris Urlis Romae, fine copy, red morocco extra 4*to. Romae*, 1510

On the recto of the last leaf mention is made of Vesputius and his discoveries.

Ethan Allen's Captivity, from the time of his being taken by the British, near Montreal, on the 25th day of September, in the year 1775, to the time of his exchange, on the 6th day of May, 1778. Containing his Voyages and Travels, with the most remarkable occurrences respecting himself, and many other continental Prisoners, of different ranks and characters, which fell under his observation in the course of the same; particularly the destruction of the prisoners at New-York, by General Sir William Howe, in the years 1776 and 1777; interspersed with some Political Observations, polished calf extra

12*mo. Walpole, N.H. Published by Thomas & Thomas*, 1807

Very scarce, interesting and highly important pamphlet. The original edition was published at Newbury in 1780.

7 AMERICA: or an exact Description of the West-Indies: More especially of those Provinces which are under the Dominion of the King of Spain. Faithfully represented by N. N. Gent, fine clean copy in green morocco extra, by W. Pratt, with the rare folding map 8*vo. London, printed by Ric. Hodgkinsonne for Edw. Dod*, 1655

8 AMERICAN POEMS, selected and original, vol. I (all published), nice clean copy in calf extra 8*vo. Litchfield* [1793]

9 AMERICAN STAMP ACT. Authentic Account of the Proceedings of the Congress held at New York, in 1765, on the Subject of the American Stamp Act, 1767—The celebrated Speech of a celebrated Commoner (Wm. Pitt), London, 1766—The Examination of Doctor Benjamin Franklin relative to the repeal of the American Stamp Act in 1766 [London] 1767, three rare tracts in one volume, old calf 8*vo.* [London] 1766-7

In addition to the three tracts mentioned above, the volume contains 167 pages of close manuscript notes, being extracts collected from all kinds of sources, relative to the Stamp Act, supplemented, and strung together, by many original notes of the Compiler. From an autograph in one of the pamphlets in the same handwriting as the notes the compiler's name appears to have been Thomas Wolrich. The whole volume, printed and manuscript, forms a tolerably exhaustive history of the Stamp Act, well worthy of the attention of the modern historian.

10 AMERICAN WAR. The History of the War in America between Great Britain and Her Colonies, from its Commencement to the end of the year 1778. In which its Origin, Progress, and Operations are faithfully related, &c. To which is added, a Collection of Interesting and Authentic Papers tending to elucidate the History, in 2 vol. capital clean copy in mottled calf, large folding map 8*vo. Dublin*, 1779

11 ANDRÉ (Major John) Cow-Chace, in Three Cantos published on Occasion of the Rebel General Wayne's attack of the Refugees Block-House on Hudson's River, on Friday, the 21st of July, 1780, FIRST EDITION, fine clean copy, polished brown calf extra, EXCESSIVELY RARE

With a short account of Mr. Nicholas Merritt, who was taken at the same time. To which is added a Sermon by John Barnard, V.D.M. fine clean uncut copy in red morocco 12mo. London, 1726

16 BARBADOS. Some Memoirs of the first settlement of Barbados and other the Carribbee Islands with the succession of the Governours and Commanders in Chief of Barbados to the Year 1741. Extracted from ancient records, papers, and accounts taken from Mr. William Arnold, Mr. Samuel Bulkly, and Mr. John Summers, some of the first Settlers, the last of whom was alive in 1688, aged 82, mottled calf extra, a few wormholes skilfully mended and restored *16mo. 98 CORTES (HERNANDO) A long, highly interesting and historically important Manuscript Letter to the Emperor Charles the Fifth, not dated, but having the Autograph Signature of the CONQUEROR OF MEXICO under his title "EL MARQ^{s} DEL VALLE." 6 closely written folio pages, bound by Pratt in limp red morocco

Autographs of the CONQUEROR OF MEXICO are of the highest degree of rarity. This one is unquestionably genuine, but has been somewhat injured by damp, and the autograph signature is rubbed and faded, but may still be read. The Letter was manifestly written in 1541 or 1542, when Las Casas and the Emperor were getting up their famous New Laws of the Indies, first printed at Alcala in 1543, which in behalf of the Indians created a great sensation in Mexico, and a revolution in Peru. The Emperor had asked Cortes' advice as to the Encomiendas, the treatment of the Indians, and especially as to enslaving them. This long letter is his reply. He advises their being taken under the protection of the crown, and that if Spaniards have them in hereditary encomienda, they must live with them in New Spain. He thinks that taking the Indians away from the Spaniards who already have them, would cause great indignation and discontent. He advises discoveries of new lands, and settling them with the Indians, but in such a manner that they will be protected, preserved, and Christianized, but only by special license and under experienced discoverers. He strongly advises that the Council of the Indies shall inquire into the treatment of the Indians by the Conquistadores, and that in all further conquests there are to be no more slaves, or property in Indians.

8*vo. London and Boston,* 1765-1828

It is seldom that so fine a set of the four volumes of this important work is offered for sale; in fact it is very rarely that the four volumes are found together at all. The first two volumes were issued in Boston in 1764 and 1767, and reprinted in London in the following years; the Collection of Papers which has now become excessively scarce, was published at Boston in 1769 and not reprinted in London, whilst the fourth volume was published in London in 1828 and not reprinted in Boston. Hence there is no such thing as a complete Boston copy, or a complete London copy, but all sets must necessarily be mixed. Some copies of the vol. I were issued in London with the date of 1760 in error, but the leaf was cancelled. This copy has both titles inserted.

The small map is the earliest we have of St. Domingo. In this copy is inserted a facsimile of the map to which, on a leaf at the end of the Second Book, the reader is referred, and informed that it was prepared from two maps made in Seville. This map probably did not accompany the book, but was published separately. Only one copy is known, namely the one supplied by Mr. Stevens to Mr. Lenox in 1853, and from which Mr. Stevens had the facsimile made (see Henry Stevens's "Recollections of Mr. James Lenox," chapter xvi, page 137). 304 MARTYR (Peter) The Historie of the West Indies, containing the Actes and Aduentures of the Spaniards, which haue conquered and peopled those Countries, inriched with varietie of pleasant relation of the Manners, Ceremonies, Lawes, Gouvernments, and Warres of the Indians. Published in Latin by Mr. Hakluyt, and translated into English by M. Lok. Gent, good copy in blue morocco extra 4*to. London, Andrew Hebb* [s. a.]

"The above three volumes show the variations and transitions of this remarkable work. Peter Martyr's first Decade was surreptitiously printed in Latin in 1511, and his first three Decades, under his own editorship, in 1516. He died in 1526, and four years later appeared the whole eight Decades at Alcala (see Lot 295), forming the most authentic history of the discovery and exploration of America, 1492–1525, we have. In 1587, Hakluyt at Paris, at the instigation and expense of Sir Walter Ralegh, carefully re-edited and published the eight Decades in Latin, with a long historical Dedication to Ralegh, and a copious Index, adding an exquisite map of the new hemisphere by Francis Gaulle, the best that had been constructed up to that date (see Lot 301). In 1555, the first three Decades had been printed in English by Richard Eden, with other pieces, and reprinted in 1577 by Willes, with additions. Hakluyt, after publishing his great collection of voyages, 1598–1600, induced various editors to translate such important works of this character as he had not included in his three volumes, Michael Lok undertaking Peter Martyr, which was finished in time to be entered at the Stationers' Hall for copyright of the Decade by Thomas Adams, 9th April, 1612. The copyright of the first three Decades having come into the hands of George Bishop, who died in 1611, his widow assigned, with the consent of the Stationers' Company, his stock of copyrights (33 or more) to the said Thomas Adams, who, as above, completed the work in the eight Decades by reprinting the first three and adding the remaining five. On June 22, 1621, Andrew Hebb took up his freedom in the Stationers' Company, but no books appear to have been entered for his copyright until the 6th of May, 1625, when the stock of copyrights of Thomas Adams appear entered to him by assignment from the widow of Adams. This book is not in the recorded list of that date, but as there is no previous entry to Hebb; it is pretty certain that Hebb's title could not have been issued prior to 1625; and the fact of the four pages Latin Dedication to King James being omitted tends to prove this, as James died in 1625. This chronology is important, because certain American bibliographers and collectors have of late assigned various dates to Hebb's issue, even as far back as 1597, and calling it the first edition, but a comparison with Adams's title disproves this. Hebb continued to have books entered to him till 1637. Hazlitt is therefore probably in error in assigning [1640] as the time of this issue. It is possible that the title issued by Michael Sparke senior, called 'The Second Edition,' and bearing date 1628, may have been prior to that of Hebb, and that Sparke may have got possession of Adams's remainder, and subsequently sold the whole or part of it to Hebb, or they may have shared it, as Sparke had done, with the great works of Purchas, Capt. John Smith and others. If Sparke's title was later than Hebb's, he may have forgotten Adams's edition of fourteen years previous, and, regarding Hebb's as the first edition, called his own the second. There is no doubt all three editions are from the same original stock, and are identical in all respects except the titles, and the two leaves of Latin Dedication which appear only in Adams's edition."—HENRY STEVENS.

The Author of this very rare book was Captain Edward Johnson of Woburn, Mass. Four years after its publication Brooke the same publisher issued Gorges' America Painted to the Life, incorporating Johnson's Book with it. Gorges has been much blamed for the piracy, but the late Mr. Henry Stevens was enabled, in 1881, for the first time, to explain this matter and clear Gorges of the imputation of literary thievery. Johnson's book belonged to Brooke, and not being swift of sale, after four years, when publishing Gorges' book, he took upon himself the responsibility of working in and off his dead stock. As soon as Gorges found out this trick of his publisher he inserted in the Mercurius Publicus, Newspaper of the 13th Sept. 1660, the following

"ADVERTISEMENT.

I FERDINANDO GORGES, the entituled Author of a late Book, called AMERICA PAINTED TO THE LIFE, am injured in that additional Part, called SION'S SAVIOUR IN NEW ENGLAND, (as written by Sir FERDINANDO Gorges;) that being none of his, and formerly printed in another name, the true owner."

This early American tract on Steam, Steam-boats and Steam-power is of great importance in the history of the use of steam as a propeller prior to Fulton or Watt. Rumsey had prepared his model boat in Virginia in 1784, and privately printed an account of it in 1785. This falling into the hands of John Fitch, of Connecticut, he published at Philadelphia in 1787 his "Original Steam-boat supported, a reply to James Rumsey's Pamphlet." In this tract of Mr. Fitch he accuses Rumsey of false dates, &c., and claims priority of invention for himself. This brought out a reply by Joseph Barnes, of Philadelphia, formerly an assistant, and now Attorney in fact, to James Rumsey, entitled "Remarks on Mr. John Fitch's Reply to Mr. James Rumsey's Pamphlet, Phil. 1788." Mr. Barnes gives his affidavit sworn to under oath before Cato Moore, that in May, 1785, he was employed by Mr. Rumsey to build a boat on Potowmack River to be propelled by steam, and that he had built the boat. In Sept. 1784, Rumsey exhibited his model of a steam-boat to General Washington at Bath, in Virginia, who gave him a certificate. General Gates also saw the great experiment, Dec. 3, 1787, on Potowmack river, and certifies that James Rumsey's Steam Boat got on her way, with near half her burthen on board, and moved against the current at the rate of three miles per hour, by the force of steam without any external application whatever. Governor Johnson's certificate is even stronger of what he knew and saw between 1784 and Dec. 1787. This tract of Rumsey is dated Jan. 1, 1788. The four tracts of Rumsey (2) Fitch and Barnes are indispensable for the history of Steam.

Edited, with Epistle dedicatory of two pages to Dr. Reinhold Pauli, from the original manuscript of the Second Admiral of the Indies, then in the possession of Henry Stevens, and printed at the Chiswick Press. The young King of Spain, Charles, had asked Columbus respecting the benevolent scheme of Las Casas for civilizing and christianizing the Indians of Terra Firma, urging the Admiral's co-operation. This is Don Diego Columbus's favourable reply. This and the next five lots form an interesting series of Spanish historical tracts, printed uniformly in black letter, similar to that of the Las Casas tracts of 1552, and of the same sized page. The six volumes are all bound neatly in paste-grained roan of six different colours, with different side gold ornaments, and different fancy end papers Only 100 copies of each were printed.

Las Casas, who had taken great interest in the welfare and christianizing of the Indians, had been promised an extensive grant of land on the coast of Terra Firma, between Darien and Trinidad, for the purpose of founding a colony for improving and civilizing the natives. In this important and long autograph letter he repeats his request to Charles the Fifth through his Chancellor, and urges his benevolent scheme. It was printed in 1854 from the original autograph manuscript then in the possession of Mr. Stevens. In the epistle dedicatory to Arthur Helps, Esq., a full account of the subject of the letter is given in English.

This important manuscript was edited by Henry Stevens, and privately printed for him at the Chiswick Press in 1854 from the original, then in his possession. It is dated the first of July, 1541. Las Casas and others had complained much of the ill-treatment and slavery of the Indians by the Spaniards in America, until finally Charles V referred the grand question to the Faculty of the University of Salamanca, whether Indians who had been baptized could be made slaves? This curious document is the official answer, signed by the Dean and all the Faculty. The volume has a long explanatory dedication in English to Sir Thomas Phillipps.

First privately printed from the original manuscript in 1854, in the possession of Mr. Stevens. It is not dated, but was manifestly written in 1541 or 1542, when the Emperor and Las Casas were getting up the famous New Laws of the Indies, printed in 1543. The Emperor had asked Cortes's advice respecting the encomiendas and the treatment of the Indians in Mexico. This is the Conqueror's sensible reply. The volume is dedicated in a long epistle in English to Leopold von Ranke, the historian, in which dedication is given an abstract of this important historical document in English. The original autograph letter of Cortes will be found under lot 98.

With an Introduction on the History of Printing as illustrated by the printed Bible, from 1450 to 1877, in which is told for the first time the true history and mystery of the Coverdale Bible of 1535. Together with bibliographical notes and collations of many rare Bibles in various languages and divers versions printed during the last four centuries. Special edition, revised and carefully corrected, with additions, 162 pp. uncut, LARGE PAPER, elegantly bound by Bedford, in red morocco extra super royal 8*vo. London, Mdccc Lxxviii.*
This work is of the greatest value as a Bible Bibliography, and exhibits in a marked degree the depth of the author's knowledge. In the introduction he sets forth, for the first time, his reasons for believing that the first English Bible of 1535 was printed at Antwerp by or for Jacob van Meteren, a theory that has now become generally acknowledged. This large paper edition was printed on the finest hand-made paper, under Mr. Stevens' own direction, and it is said that he considered the copies bound by Bedford, in red morocco, as his beau ideal of what a handsome new English book should be, both as regards printing and binding.
